Marla Schulman

President, Schreiber Translations, Inc.

As President of Schreiber Translations, Inc. (STI), one of the leading language services companies in the U.S., Marla Schulman has over 10 years of management experience in the translation industry. Under her leadership, STI, which provides translation, interpretation, foreign language desktop publishing, and localization services in all languages, has grown 25% over the last four years. Schulman has competed for and won some of the largest translation projects issued by U.S. government agencies and private firms, such as NASA and Shearman & Sterling. Schulman has demonstrated a strong track-record of commitment to the field of translation. She currently serves as the elected Vice President of the Association of Language Companies (www.alcus.org), an organization to which STI belongs as a Charter Member. In addition, STI's tenure of support as a corporate member of the American Translators Association (ATA) goes back twenty years. In addition to her work at STI and in the translation industry, she is an active board member of the Montgomery County Multiple Sclerosis Center, and an active member of the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce.

Mordecai Schreiber

President, Schreiber Publishing, Inc.

Founder and Past President, Schreiber Translations, Inc.

Mordecai Schreiber is best known in the translation field for two accomplishments: first, as founder (in 1979) of Schreiber Translations, Inc. in Rockville, Maryland, a leader in the field and one of the main providers of language services to U.S. Government agencies. Second, as the author of The Translator's Handbook, now in its 5th revised edition, a practical guide used by translators around the world. Schreiber has authored over 40 books and book translations, and has spoken at translator conferences. In 1998 Schreiber started a publishing company, Schreiber Publishing, the only provider of books and training materials in the U.S. designed specifically for linguists.
